Lines of Encouragement...

Another baptism! Jeremiah Bailey (son of Jarrod & Janet) was baptized into Christ Thursday night (Jan. 28th). What an important decision made early in the life of this young man. May God use him for years to come! Will his example motivate you to do what you need to do in your relationship with the Lord? I hope and pray that it will.

Let's try that again...The Fish & Wild Game Supper was rescheduled for this coming Saturday night (6th) because of the snow. I think that I will just stick to preaching and forget snow forecasting! In 23 years since we have been having this supper, this is the first time that we have ever had to cancel. Oh well, it will be just as much fun this Saturday night. Spread the word, then bring who and what you can. Frank Bradford will still be our entertainment for the evening and he will be staying over to speak to our young people (3rd grade –High School) Sunday morning. He will also preach for all of us in the morning worship hour.

Didn't you miss worshipping with one another last Sunday? I know that I did! The roads and parking lot were dangerous and our elders certainly made the right call for the safety of all. Nevertheless, I still missed gathering with the church family here. I guess that we often take for granted having the opportunity to be together every week. There are still places in our world where Christians struggle to be together just one time a week. Salvation, relationship, and fellowship are great blessings to be found in the church. The God who created us knows of our spiritual and social needs. The church is no accident. In His infinite wisdom, God designed the church for the good of man. Aren't you glad that He did? Enjoy the family, such was His intentions!

Remember that the F-HU Lectureship is next week (Feb. 7-12). Thousands of Christians will come together in the small town of Henderson, Tennessee. There are classes for all ages every day and evening sessions to enjoy also. The singing alone is worth the trip! This is a great cure for the "winter blues". Check out the schedule in the foyer.

Attention husbands...This is your "two week warning", Valentine's Day is Sunday (14th). Don't allow it to sneak upon you. Plan now for success! Do something special for your mate and reaffirm your love and commitment to one another. A man may inherit houses and riches from his parents, but a good wife is a gift of God (Prov. 19:14). Show your appreciation for the gift that God has blessed you with. Love demonstrates itself!

See You Sunday,
Jim

...JARROD'S JARGON...

Snow, snow, snow...no school, no school, no school. It is great to hear those words! I know that all of you have had a great weekend. The snow was beautiful when it was falling and covering everything. How was your snowman making skills? I saw several in our area that were pretty neat. Are you sore and tired from all the sledding you did? I haven't sledded or played in the snow like that since I lived in New Mexico back in the mid 80's. Now all we need to do is recover from the soreness because of all the sledding we did (hence the Tuesday no school recovery day). I hope everyone enjoyed the snow and being out of school, now you get to make up all that schoolwork (that'll be fun). Have a great week and we will see ya Sunday.

THE HEART OF A CHILD

Whatever you write on the heart of a child no water can wash away. The sand may be shifted when billows are wild and the efforts of time may decay. Some stories may perish, some songs be forgot. But this graven record –time changes it not. Whatever you write on the heart of a child, a story of gladness or care the heaven has blessed or earth has defiled, will linger unchangeable there.
