Lines of Encouragement...

Thank you Harold & Mary Kee for your many years of service and leadership! As announced last Sunday morning, after twenty-eight years of serving as one of our elders, Harold has resigned because of present health conditions. I have personally served with Harold for twenty-three years and can say that it has been a rewarding experience! His spirituality, wisdom, and people skills have earned him deep respect. In the imitation of our Lord, Harold too has been a "good shepherd". Mary has stood beside him and strengthened his leadership with her own example. To the both of you, we express our gratitude for your sacrifices, your love, and Godly leadership!

Appreciation is in order or all who contributed to the Wild Game Supper! This is a big event that requires a lot of work on the part of so many. But, as always, you arose to the occasion and it turned out great. Well done once more! Enjoy the outdoors, God made it for you!

Complain, complain, complain... "Then the whole congregation of the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. And the children of Israel said to them, 'Oh, that we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the pots of meat and when we ate bread to the full! For you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger'. This passage, in Exodus 16:2-3 reminds us of the negative attitude that the Israelites often displayed. It seemed that the more that God did for them, the more they whined. It would do us all good to search our lives to see what kind of people that we are. Is our speech typically filled with complaints or compliments? Does anyone ever please us? Are we critical of everyone's actions but our own? Would our peers label us as whiners or encouragers? God's people (of all people on earth) have more reason to be positive than anyone else. Shouldn't we lead the way, being a positive example for others around us? No, the world nor the people in it are not perfect, but what is new? It has always been this way and always will be. The imperfections of this life will cause us to be "better" or "bitter". It is our choice, but our choice will influence those around us. Let us dwell on the lovely. Let us look for the right. Let us praise those making a difference. Let us hold up the hands of the weak. But, by all means, let us not be "professional complainers"! Life with God is good, let us be careful that we do not leave the wrong impression to those who do not know Him.

See You Sunday,
Jim
